

Reflecting on the G8/G20 Protests a Month Later

Wednesday, 04 August 2010

Last Updated Thursday, 05 August 2010

In this program, Making the Links Radio interviews Dave Vasey about the recent G8/G20 Protests in Toronto. Vasey discusses the issues protesters sought to raise, what happened at the protests, and his own story of police repression. Vasey was arrested twice in the span of four days. His story highlights concerns about both the reigning government agenda and the expanding suppression of democratic rights in Canada and across the globe.

{enclose vasey.mp3}