

The Walkers Against a Nuclear Waste Dump in Northern Saskatchewan

Saturday, 29 October 2011

People from Northern Saskatchewan walked 850 kilometers to protest a nuclear waste dump and transportation of nuclear waste in Saskatchewan. This is their story of what they learned on that walk, what they shared with communities, how solidarity was built from community to community.

{enclose walkers.mp3}